

“Making Access to Personalised Medicine a Reality for Patients” 3rd October 2016, Warsaw, Poland

localization: National Institute of Public Health, 24, Chocimska Street, room 307

moderator: dr n.med. Mariusz Gujski, Healthcare Institute, Warsaw

AGENDA

10.00 - 10.20	Welcome Speech: cross-border collaboration towards PM concept
----------------------	--

prof. dr hab. n. med. Mirosław J. Wysocki, General Director, National Consultant - Public Health, National Institute of Public Health (NIH)

prof. dr hab. n. med. Jarosław Fedorowski, MBA, Executive Committee, Polish Alliance for Personalised Medicine

Denis Horgan, Executive Director, European Alliance for Personalised Medicine

10.20 – 10.35	Opening Statements: PM challenges for Poland
----------------------	---

Justyna Mieszalska, Ministry of Health

10.35 – 11.00	EAPM priorities
----------------------	------------------------

Denis Horgan, Executive Director, European Alliance for Personalised Medicine

11.00 – 12.15	Session I: What are the primary tasks and responsibilities in approach to personalised healthcare in Poland?
----------------------	---

Chair: Denis Horgan, EAPM Executive Director

- Wojciech Wiśniewski, Alivia Foundation
- dr n. med. Beata Jagielska, Deputy Director for Outpatient and Settlement Health Services, Memorial Cancer Center - Institute of Oncology in Warsaw

Panel Discussion

12.15 – 15.30	Session II: Structural issues in personalised medicine. European and country perspective
----------------------	---

12.15 – 13.00 Part 1

Chair: dr n. med. Beata Jagielska, Deputy Director for Outpatient and Settlement Health Services, Memorial Cancer Center - Institute of Oncology in Warsaw

How to address PM challenges (economical, ethical – focus on data security, communication)?

- prof. dr hab. Ewa Okoń-Horodyńska, Jagiellonian University
- prof. dr hab. n. med. Andrzej Fal, MBA, National Institute of Public Health (NIH), Polish Society of Public Health, President of the Main Board
- Gerard Karp, Wierzbowski-Eversheds Law Firm
- Maria Libura, Director Institute for Interdisciplinary Studies, Lazarski School

Panel Discussion

13.00 – 13.40 Lunch

EAPM Office: UM Campus Brussels Avenue de l'Armee/ Legerlaan 10040 Brussels, Belgium, Board: M. Baker, D. Byrne, G. McVie, H. Galbraith, A. Paradiso, D. Jacqmin
Denis Horgan, EAPM Office, Tel: +32 (0)472 5 3 51 04, E-Mail: denis.horgan@euapm.eu,

13.40– 14.15

Part 2

Chair: dr n. med. Beata Jagielska, Deputy Director for Outpatient and Settlement Health Services, Memorial Cancer Center - Institute of Oncology in Warsaw

How interdisciplinary approach is crucial and how make it more efficient?

- prof. dr hab. n. med. Mirosław J. Wysocki, General Director, National Consultant - Public Health, National Institute of Public Health (NIH)
- prof. dr hab. n. med. Anna Nasierowska-Guttmejer, Polish Society of Pathologists
- prof. dr hab. n. med. Joanna Chorostowska-Wynimko, Scientific Director, National Institute of Tuberculosis and Lung Diseases

Panel Discussion

14.15– 15.30

Part 3

Chair: dr n. med. Mariusz Gujski, Healthcare Institute, Warsaw

What differences in outcomes exist and how to live with it?

- prof. dr hab. n. med. Piotr Fiedor, Director, National Medicines Institute
- prof. dr hab. n. med. Joanna Chorostowska-Wynimko, Scientific Director, National Institute of Tuberculosis and Lung Diseases
- dr n.med. Jakub Gierczyński, MBA, National Institute of Public Health (NIH)

How projects can support the development of new treatment for patients?

- prof. dr hab. n. med. Brygida Kwiatkowska, Vice Director, National Institute for Geriatrics, Rheumatology and Rehabilitation
- Wojciech Wiśniewski, Alivia Foundation

Panel Discussion

15.30 – 16.00

Conclusions: Necessary Structures for successful integration of Personalised Medicine in the Healthcare System

- prof. dr hab. n. med. Jarosław Fedorowski, MBA, Polish Alliance for Personalised Medicine
- Denis Horgan, Executive Director, European Alliance for Personalised Medicine